

CHRISTIAN SINGLES MINGLE

FAQs

Do I have to be a Christian to attend this event?

This is a Christian inspired singles mingle to meet and converse with other like-minded followers of Jesus. It will be the main premise of this particular function, but if you are still seeking answers before choosing to become a follower of Christ, you are welcome. As it says on our website, all are welcome. Bring your questions, doubts, fears and hurts, and you will find genuinely caring and understanding friends here.

Is there a cost to attend this event?

There is no cost to attend, it is being held at a church, so any donations would be welcomed and go straight into the ministry.

Is there parking near to the building?

There is a lot behind the building. If that is full, there is side street parking in the vicinity.

Is there a dress code?

This is social mixer where you could potentially meet your next significant other, or just meet some awesome new single friends. So dress appropriately to reflect who you are, dressing casually or whatever makes you feel comfortable.

I am a single lady attending this function alone.

Will I feel/be safe here?

Please be assured, we will be going through a registration process for all attendees to get an idea of what each person is looking for by coming to this event. While it's impossible to evade deception entirely, please note that extra measures will be exercised to take this into account.

Are there any services being provided for babysitting?

This is an adult only social mixer where there are no provisions for babysitting children of any age. Please keep this in mind when registering.

Will any liquor or beer be available for purchase?

This will be a non-alcohol dry event. Light refreshments including beverages and appetizers will be provided.
